Thank God it's over! Campbell, look out for the trucks. Aflac! Dustin, you look like Fester. OOAAHH! Baron: tic — tic — tic — BOOM! You are terrible at b-ball. To the angry Italian, it's over and I owe you one. To all the hairy micks, good luck in the hall and at sea. To the gang, you guys are the best! I wouldn't have changed it for the world. Good times forever. To the family, thank you for everything. I love you Dad, Vick, and Jess. Mom, I did it! Thank you! Love you!

How worn and dusty the highways of the world, how deep the ruts of tradition and conformity. I did not wish to take a cabin passage, but rather go before the mast. And on the deck of the world, for there I could best see the moonlight amid the mountains. — Henry David Thoureau.
